THE PARADING BEGINS...

2011 NZTM Australian Trainers' Tour looking on at Pins x Glamour Puss colt.

Pins Notches 6th Stakes Winner this Season

Pins' notched his 6th individual stakes winner of the season following the gutsy win of his 4YO son Undisclosed in Listed Counties Bowl (1100m) last Saturday.

Trained by Peter and Kim McKay - who share in the ownership with Trevor Luke, Undisclosed is a dual stakes winner who notably has a O'Reilly half-sister at Karaka in 2012.

Pins' 6 stakes winners comprise: Our Nautique, Antonio Lombardo, I'm Jake, Ambitious Dragon, Somepin Anypin and Undisclosed.

Mating of the Week: Pins over Golden Gamble

Sire: Pins

Damsire: Oregon

Reason: The resultant foal would be a full sibling to Hong Kong's reigning 'Horse of the Year', Ambitious Dragon.

Fast 'N' Famous filly*

Keep an eye out for a 3YO gelding in Australia called Brambles.

The Peter Moody-trained son of Savabeel took his record to two wins and a placing from three appearances on Wednesday following a runaway success over 1400 metres in Victoria.

Brambles raced keenly in front, but showed a good turn of foot when asked for the effort by Luke Nolen, dashing clear to win by four lengths.

Mark’s Mail

We had our first yearling parade this week with the arrival of NZTM’s 2011 Australian Trainers’ Tour. It’s a fantastic initiative and once again, we had a thoroughly enjoyable time hosting the guys.

Of the post parade function at Game Gully, congratulations to sharp shooter Cameron Cooke, who took out the annual “ATT Claybird Shooting Prize”.

Congratulations this week also goes to Peter and Kim McKay and Trevor Luke, who enjoyed a good win last weekend with Undisclosed (Pins).
