

Dual Gr.1 winner Scarlett Lady returning to scale with James McDonald

Australian Campaign Gets Gr.1 Nod of Approval

Savabeel four-year-old Scarlett Lady gave her upcoming Australian campaign a superb Gr.1 nod of approval with the running of the New Zealand Stakes (2000m) at Ellerslie on Saturday.

The Waikato Stud and Steve Luey-bred 2011 Gr.1 Queensland Oaks heroine stalked the leading danger Veyron in 4th throughout and when asked for an effort by pilot James McDonald, let down smartly to engage in a classic home straight tussle.

Pulling clear of the aforementioned Gr.1 winner at the line, Scarlett Lady registered what was her second Gr.1 success with a neck to spare.

Raced by Australian Turf Club board member Max Whitby and trained by Graeme and Debbie Rogerson, the $25,000 Premier Sale graduate will now look to Sydney to enhance her $755,336 race record of eight wins from 14 starts.

"She's pulled up enormous, so all going to plan she'll go to the Gr.1 Ranvet Stakes (WFA, 2000m) at Rosehill on March 24 and then to the Gr.1 BMW Stakes (WFA, 2400m) at the same track on April 7," Graeme Rogerson outlined this morning.

"After the BMW, which is her main target this prep, things are up in the air. The question is whether we go to the Sydney Cup or to head to Queensland," explained Rogerson.

Further down the line, Rogerson has made no secret of his desire to see her feature on the first Tuesday of November.

"She's probably the best staying filly we've had here for a long time. She was the early favourite for the Melbourne Cup last year, but we didn't get there. This year I think we will."
