WAR AFFAIR BRINGS UP O'REILLY'S 14th SW

The Trelawney Stud-bred son of O'Reilly named War Affair, established himself as the leading juvenile in Singapore last Friday.

Providing his sire with his 14th individual stakes winner this season, War Affair (pictured as a yearling right) left onlookers in no doubt that he is the top two-year-old, running away to score the Gr.2 Aushorse Golden Horseshoe (1200m) at Kranji by two lengths.

The Mark Walker-trained youngster was ridden to his latest success by champion rider Joao Moreira following their previous victory in the Inglis Sydney Juvenile Stakes.

"He's a pretty exciting horse," Walker said. "He's kept improving with age and he's got an exciting future in Singapore. Being by O'Reilly, who is a great sire, I think he'll go over more ground here."

War Affair was purchased for $70,000 by David Ellis out of Trelawney Stud's Premier Sale Karaka draft in 2012. He has now won two of his three starts for owners Mr and Mrs Ong.

War Affair represents the only racehorse bred on the O'Reilly (s)/ Kris S (ds) cross.

MARK'S MAIL

O'Reilly continues to amaze. Congrats to the team around the Mark Walker-trained 2YO War Affair. Can't wait to follow him in his starts ahead.

The same also goes for O'Reilly's Gr.1 son Shamexpress, who sounds like he is progressing nicely towards his Royal Ascot targets ahead.

Don't forget to email us your postal details for the brochure. I can tell you, it's well worth receiving.

Right, I'm tipping Pins' Queensland Derby candidate Rhythm to Spare for the win this weekend. It was a good win by the Mike Moroney-trained galloper at Sandown last start and jockey Glen Boss is keen to stick with the ship.

Tip of the Week: RHYTHM TO SPARE – Saturday - BRC – Gr.3 Grand Prix Stakes - 5:05pm

Good luck and good punting everyone!
